

DOMAINE D'ARDHUY
CORGOLOIN

BURGUNDY
CÔTE DE NUITS

OVERVIEW | The winery has been owned by the Pierre André family since 1939, although the estate itself has existed in its picturesque setting in the middle of the vines of Corgoloin since the 11th century. The winery is run today by Mireille Santiard-d'Ardhuy, Mr. André's granddaughter and their winemaker is Carel Voorhuis. Today the owners concentrate on the Domaine d'Ardhuy in Burgundy and another in the Rhône Valley, the Domaine La Cabotte and it's range of Côte du Rhônes.

VINEYARD AREA: 45 hectares

ANNUAL PRODUCTION: 18,000 cases

TOP SITES: Clos des Langres

SOIL TYPES: limestone

GRAPE VARIETIES: pinot noir, chardonnay, pinot gris

The d'Ardhuy family originate in the small town of Yssingaux around 50km South-West of Lyon. It was Gabriel d'Ardhuy who settled down in Burgundy around 1927 and bought vineyards to build up a domaine. Later by marriage d'Ardhuy came together with André, hence, the Château Corton André came into the fold. Today it is Mireille Santiard-d'Ardhuy who is responsible at the domaine for the d'Ardhuy family.

VINEYARD/CELLAR PRACTICES | The Domaine is run under "lutte raisonnée" techniques, resulting in a minimal use of chemicals. Harvest and sorting are performed by hand. Reds are destemmed (though the 10-15% of the ripest fruit is not, to enhance aromatic freshness and structure). Pigeage and/or remontage are employed, though wines do not undergo a cold soak. Macerations typically last 10 to 14 days, with an additional 2 to 3 days after fermentation. Whites are pressed in pneumatic presses and the must is fermented in stainless vats and neutral barrel.
