

RIBEIRA SACRA

ENOLOGÍA TEMERA
ORENSE

OVERVIEW | The bodega began in 1995 with an initial capacity of 25,000 liters from a total of 5 hectares divided between two zones: Alto da Peza and Stopping Sobrado.

Jorge Gonzalez, a native of the region of Ribeira Sacra, is making fantastic wines from the local grape variety mencia, which makes red wines that are full of ripe black cherry fruit but have good structure and acidity to add balance to the wines.

VINEYARD/CELLAR PRACTICES | The vineyards are planted on the steep sloped of the River Sil. The bedrock is slate which adds wonderful minerality to these cuvees of 100% Mencia.

WINES | The Alodio is Jorge's basic offering. Made with native yeasts and no filtration, this red is plush with fruit and aromas of rose petal and green tea.
